

People of the Book

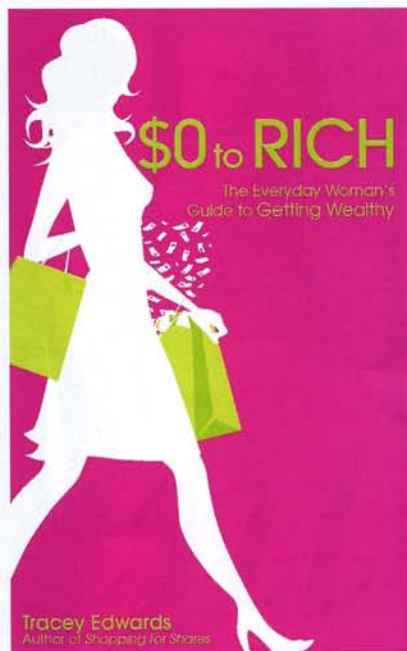

Geraldine Brooks

An enthralling story of war, art, love and survival, People of the Book will take you from Australia to Bosnia and throughout centuries as one woman's quest to restore an ancient Hebrew text brings about new and unexpected discoveries. This is a must-read from Pulitzer Prize-winning author Geraldine Brooks.

I'm an avid reader, music lover and movie buff and working at Borders allows me to stay right up to date with all the latest releases.

Aleta Huthnance – Business Manager, Borders Asia Pacific

$0 to Rich

Tracey Edwards

From the bestselling author of Shopping for Shares comes $0 to Rich. Written specifically for women, $0 to Rich provides readers with a user friendly guide towards achieving their own financial goals - without the worry.

How to Make Good People Great Leaders

Ricky Nowak

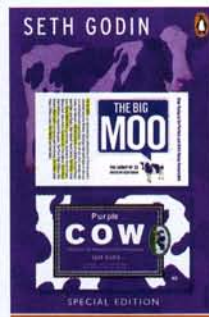

From renowned industry coach, Ricky Nowak, comes this indispensable guide to developing the future leaders within your organisation. Practical and accessible, Ricky's guide will help your company create a sustainable competitive advantage.

Raising a Business

Sonia Williams

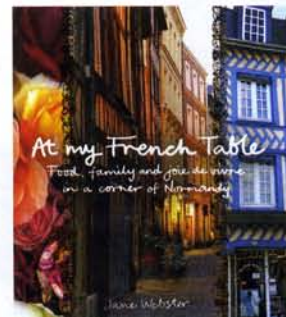

Raising a Business aims to teach women how they can successfully prepare their start-up business for growth and outlines the key areas that entrepreneurs need to look at to create a profitable and sustainable company.

Seth Godin Special Edition

Seth Godin

For the first time, two of Seth Godin's most influential works on marketing and personal branding – Purple Cow and The Big Moo – are now available in a special, single volume collector's edition. Exclusive to Borders.

At My French Table

Jane Webster

Jane Webster packed up her family and left Australia to live in a neglected chateau in France, to run a cooking school. This book takes us on that journey as Jane discovers a rich life in the village, in the cycles of seasonal produce and in the restoration of the chateau.