

Book of the month

SHOW MUMMY THE MONEY

Sonia Williams

LUCY MCGOOL, RRP $29.95, available at www.showmummythemoney.com.au

Most mothers face the dilemma about returning to work. Many look forward to returning to the workforce but others feel they have no choice – they can't afford to stay home. Show Mummy the Money is for those who want to be at-home mums and make money while they're at it. The solution, writes Sonia Williams, is to start a home-based business. Williams writes from experience. Mother of two and a Certified Practising Accountant, she started a business specialising in wedding photography.

"A home-based business allows you to be in control of your life, your future and the future of your children," writes Williams.

"Managing a home-based business whilst raising a family will give you the flexibility and liberty to decide what you do, how much you do and when you do it, certainly not a luxury offered by an employer."

The book has plenty of tips. If you're low on inspiration a chapter has ideas about working from home, such as wedding organiser, making jewellery or handbags, desktop publishing and career counselling. A "Hall of Fame" of successful mums includes Janine Allis of Boost Juice, Sue Ismiel of hair removal company Nads and Diana Williams who started up Fernwood Fitness.

Five readers can win a copy of this book

Tell us in 25 words or less your money-making tip for stay-at-home mums. Send to Book of the Month, Money, GPO Box 3542 Sydney NSW 2001 or email money@acpmagazines.com.au. Please include your name and postal address. Entries close Sept 6, 2006.